Birmingham, Alabama ● July 13-14, 2016
Birmingham Crossplex
2331 Bessemer Rd, Birmingham, AL 35208

No More Martyrs, in partnership with the City of Birmingham, the Office of Mayor William Bell and the Birmingham City Council, is pleased to present the inaugural Minority Mental Health Awareness Summit in recognition of Minority Mental Health Awareness Month. This special event is scheduled for July 14, 2016 with pre-summit training available on July 13, 2016.

Given the number of mental health facilities that continue to close nationally and the increasing diversity of patients, the need for culturally competent mental health practitioners is essential to improving access to services. In addition to mental health professionals, the valuable voices of consumers, community organizers and religious leaders are necessary in order to encourage collaboration and innovation towards the development of new methods of support. Latino, Asian, African-American, LGBTQIA and various other speakers have been invited to share their perspectives on the importance of culturally responsive care and services.

This special event will offer interactive, community-centered opportunities to engage the field of mental health and diversity. We invite you to attend and hope to see you there!

Sincerely,

Nadia M. Richardson, PhD
